LOCAL NEWS

We understand the same election officers appointed for registration (now defunct) will serve at the primary on Aug. 5.

Sheriff Combs and others waylaid a large moonshine still in full running gear on head of Bottom Fork Wednesday morning and captured the men running it besides destroying the whole outfit and much of the product.

We were tempted to ask the lady who "sees all and knows all" how long some good people would go with out paying their subscriptions to the Eagle.

One trouble is scarcely off till another is on. Tax-paying time is almost at hand. How in the Sam Henry will we raise the money?

The funeral of Aunt Nancy Polly will be preached at the Sam Blair grave-yard on the fifth Saturday and Sunday in July by Eld. Dave Maggard and others.

Lost Mule—Strayed from my place on July 7 one red mare mule about 7 years old, weight about 700 lbs. white spot on back. Reward for return or information. Traced far as Cornettsville.—S. H. Adington, Whitesburg.

Insurance Salesman wanted for Letcher, Floyd, Pike and Breathitt Counties. Policy pays $5,000. death; $25 weekly benefit for injury or sickness. Premium $10 yearly. Full or spare time. Easy seller. Write quick for territory. George T. Donaldson. Blackey, Ky. North American Accident Insurance Company.

Deputy Sheriff M. F. Hall resigned and accepted a position with the L. & N. policing the line from McRoberts to Hazard. He is said to have twenty-one men employed under him.

Mrs. Riley, mother of Mrs. Leonard Lewis of our town is here from Jackson on a visit.

They say business is mighty low in the Fleming, McRoberts and Seco sections on account of the labor troubles.

In the next few days contracts for considerable road work in the county will be let. The sooner the work is started the better it will be for all concerned. Watch the Eagle for progress.

—All Kinds of Houses Moved without tearing down the chimney.—Milton Moore, Hazard, Ky.

Jesse Day is agent for the Carver wagon. See his ad this week.

So far no one has been killed around here in automobile disasters but some dangerous chances have been taken. Caution is the parent of safety. We would be glad to print this same item at the close of the active season this Fall and it still be the truth.

Misses Kate Phipps and Ollie Tate, delightful young ladies of Coeburn, arrived for a few days visit with Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Short and other friends and relatives.

Little Miss Ruby Gose, of Jackson, is a pleasant visitor at the home of Prof. and Mrs. Harris.

On second Saturday and Sunday in August memorial services will be conducted at the Webb graveyard at Mayking for Emory Webb, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Webb. Elds. Bennett Adams, Hatler Mullins and others of the Regular Baptist church will attend. Invitation extended to everybody.

Several of our citizens attended Regular Baptist services at Big Cowan Sunday where Uncle Dave Maggard preached wonderfully. Uncle Dave is getting quite feeble physically but retains his old-time vigor in the pulpit.

The National Red Cross Annual Convention will be held in Washington City October 9, 10, and 11th. There are 3626 chapters of the R. d Cross in the United States and one or more representatives of each of these is expected to attend. The opening session will be addressed by President Harding. Many other National characters will attend and from time to time address sessions of the convention.

Taken Up—One blue sow with half crop and underbit right and underbit left ear, short tail. Owner can have same by describing, paying for keep and $2 for this adv.—Irvin Holcomb, Gordon, Ky.

If fakes they are, and that is for those who see them to judge, the town has had a plenty of 'em in the last few days. How these mind readings and conjectures can be made to appear so actual we do not know but the process is no doubt simple if the hearers were allowed to catch on to the tricks.

Mrs. N. E. Rierson returned from a two weeks visit at the home of Dr. and Mrs. N. E. Rierson Sr., at Bluefield W. Va. Her sister-in-law Miss Edytha Rierson accompanied her here for a few weeks visit.

A special examination for teachers will be held at Whitesburg July 28-29. Applicants must have one year of High School or three years teaching experience and at least five weeks Normal before being eligible to enter this examination.

BIDS will be received at the office of the County Superintendent until August 5 for building an addition to the school in River district No. 12.

We like for people to move to town and live in town and who are useful to the town. Some people are so small souled that they expect to draw life and living on account of the town and never propose or attempt to do a thing toward helping the town. If everybody were as dead as some people a pretty condition of things would exist. Some people are even so dead they don't take the Eagle.

Mr. Cook, district engineer for the State Highway, was here from Hopkinsville consulting with resident engineer J. L. Gray in the interest of the county's highways. He expressed himself as well pleased with the progress of road building in our county.

Ed L. Williams is away on a business trip to Louisville and other centers for the Whitesburg Hardware Co.

The coal business about here is exciting but the shortness of cars puts a quietus on it. But for this money would be flowing in upon us again.

Hansford Short, of the Short Motor Co. here, led a van of at least fifteen cars from here to Coeburn, Va., and return last Sunday. It was a grand trip.

J. G. Gault, Manager Hazard Lumber Co., a very sick man for several days, is now slightly improving.

D' y' u want a home? C Isom Haynes here. Ice wants to help build Whitesburg.

On Saturday week, August 5, the State Primary is to be held. Three Republicans and two Democrats are seeking party nominations. Both men and women are entitled to vote. Look well to your ballots.

Mrs. Henry Blair and Mrs. Hansford Short were away several days visiting the Bluegrass sections of the State as well as homefolks in Virginia.

Miss Lucy Ewen left for a week's visit with friends and relatives in Perry county.

Tom Johnson picked and sold over 200 gallons of blackberries at the market price of 35c and 40c per gallon.

Mrs. Geo. H. Zimmerman was a social visitor in Lexington for a few days.

The weather remains hot and vexatious. A good growing season still prevails.

Fair flecked fleecy clouds float flambent like fairies in the flittering fastnesses of the skies.

Well, there is consolation in this: The man who followed the plow and plied the hoe, who breathed the fresh mountain air on the hillside, who saw the sun blink his eyes as he peeped from the shutter of the East and then waved him a good-night as he closed the curtains of day, will have plenty of hog and hominy when the winds of next winter fumble with his mustache. True, he may not have some of the things that lend to him some of the modern comforts, but if necessity demands he can cut firewood and stay in his hole.

Great big red-cheeked peaches, rich with an aroma sufficient to make a king laugh are being brought to town by the baskets. To revel in their juicy richness brings thoughts of the days when we were one-gallused boys with sore toes and bleeding heels ambling around the hillsides in pursuit of butterflies and bats. They say there are at least 1,000 bushels of apples and the peaches, Lordy! on the Booker Mullins place near town.

That in a few years Letcher county is to become the hub around which big business will revolve doth appear more certain. Big operations, factories and the like will spring into being and at Whitesburg, Jenkins and other places taxi drivers will be screaming at the top of their voices, Roanoke, Richmond, Lynchburg, Mount Vernon and Washington. They are now hollering Bluefield, Princeton, Corbin, Wise, Appalachia and Big Stone Gap. Why, over to these hustling places and back in daylight now is an everyday occurrence. Who'd a thot it five years ago? Even a trip to the Atlantic coast and back in four days is now in the bounds of probability.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Salver and Miss Mary Gee Davis returned from a visit to relatives and friends at Lexington, Dayton, O. and other points.

For Congress

F. Tom Hatcher

To the Voters of the 10th Congressional District:

The time between now and the August primary is so short that it is necessary for me to submit my candidacy for the Democratic nomination as a member of Congress in this manner.

I have always been a consistent Democrat, giving the party my whole-hearted support, both in time and money. I have had experience with legislative bodies and am personally acquainted with each Democratic member of the Kentucky delegation in Congress, which fact would be of material help in obtaining desired legislation.

If nominated, I promise you a most aggressive campaign, with the firm belief that I will be elected in November.

Your active support is respectfully solicited.

F. Tom Hatcher.

Strikes and strikes and counterstrikes string stealthily and steadfastly out across the streams 'stanter.

The Tariff, which has driven many political ships to disaster, continues to stir unpleasant medleys in the star chamber of Congress. Some big hosses are champing the bits.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

We are authorized to announce F. Tom Hatcher, of Pikeville, a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress from the Tenth district subject to the Aug. 1922 primary.

The Eagle is authorized to announce K. L. Varney, of Pikeville, a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress from the Tenth district subject to Aug. 1922 primary.

THE SANDLICK HIGHWAY

The grand highway seven miles out from Whitesburg out to the Sandlick Gap is now open for travel. It is indeed wonderful to motor over it. You can board a car almost any moment in town and in twenty minutes overlook a wide expanse of the Rockhouse section at the gap seven miles away. The grade is so perfect and the engineer's skill so well laid by the builders that from the time you leave town till you reach the gap you would scarcely know you were gliding to the top of a high hill. The road has cost a lump sum of money, has been about two years under construction, but it stands today as another credit to the county's ambition to forge ahead notwithstanding the difficulties that have confronted it. As you go over the road you can but wonder how in the world they ever did it and where they got the money. Soon, however, the State will take over this seven miles of highway, hard-surface it and up-keep it in the future. The same will soon be done on the nineteen miles leading from town to Jenkins.

And right here let's stick a tack. A seven miles more extension of the Sandlick highway will reach in a stone's throw of the Knott county line and right on within less than a dozen miles of the Perry county line. But where are we headed? The editor of our valuable contemporary and co-worker, the Hazard Leader, is fighting the battle of his life trying to arouse sentiment for building State highways in Perry county, but we have yet to learn what the Fiscal Court (the unit of road building in any county) of that big rich county is doing toward meeting our State highway pitching that way. And, so far as we have heard, Knott county is doing nothing toward tapping our highway at the divide between Carrs Fork and Rockhouse.

A big meeting of citizens met at Jackson a few days ago and proceeded to stir up sentiment favorable to the construction of what is to be known as the Ky.-Va. Highway leading from the Bluegrass to Pound Gup. The road looks pretty on paper and we hope the sentiment will grow so strong for its construction that doing things will be the impetus of it. Remember, boys, Letcher county is coming that way and will do its duty whether you do yours or not. Make a noise like work. Put it on the ground—it will serve a better purpose.

EDITORIALS

Behold the man! Some months ago he was wrestling with the demon, seeing serpents twining round his path, breathing the fumes of the lost and damned! Old King Al. Cohol held the upper hand and was striking below the belt. With a tiger leap The Man wheeled at the precipice, seized a white ribbon, bade adieu to the King and screamed "Freedom" at the top of his voice. Behold the man!

COAL

Yesterday's developments in the coal situation, while apparently approaching no nearer a settlement of the strike, did promise a judicious distribution of the supply of coal now being mined, and did hold out hope of the prevention of extortionate profiteering.

The Interstate Commerce Commission went into action by declaring the existence of an emergency in transportation east of the Mississippi which required it to direct the routing of essential commodities and to fix preference and priority in the movement of food, perishable products livestock and coal. Special regulations are to be issued for the distribution of coal scarcely less drastic than those which were enforced in war time.

Soon after the announcement of this action by the Interstate Commerce Commission came the announcement of the operators' acceptance of the Hoover plan for the control of the movement and limitation of the price of coal.

It has been evident all along that Secretary Hoover was determined to prevent a coal famine and a coal gouge. If any man at Washington can do it he is the man. He is worth all the rest of the Administration when it comes to meeting practically such conditions as have arisen in the coal industry. — (Courier-Journal.)

Uncle Newt No More

After a lingering illness Uncle Newt Thompson of near town passed quietly to his reward a few days ago. He was in his 78th year and had always been one of Letcher's very best citizens, and a faithful member of the Presbyterian church. He reared a large family of children all of whom are grown. Nearly all of them were present at his bedside when death came. Uncle Newt will be much missed by his neighbors and many friends. He leaves an aged widow surviving. Burial was in Caudill graveyard in the presence of a large gathering. Rev. Scott and other ministers were present and conducted memorial services. We extend sympathy to all the bereaved relatives and friends in their hour of sadness.

DALTON WAS ON THE POINT OF GIVING UP

Since Taking Tanlac He Is Like New Man And Never Misses A Day From Store Says Richmond Grocer.

"I reached the point where I planned to give up my work but since taking Tanlac I feel fine and never miss a day from my store," said R. E. Dalton, well-known grocer, of 423 Hull St., Richmond Va. "For two years I was in the worst sort of health and when I say I suffered I mean I suffered. My liver was sluggish, I had severe pains in my right side, and had to be always taking laxatives as I was badly constipated. Nearly every day I suffered terrible headaches and nervous spells. My digestion was so bad it looked like every thing I ate disagreed with me. I had a mean taste in my mouth and was nauseated all day long.

"Tanlac stopped all my troubles and built me back to where I have regained my lost weight and I never enjoyed finer health. My wife began taking Tanlac too, and is looking like a different person. We consider Tanlac simply great."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.

That is why Buick has organized a nationwide authorized Buick service that extends to practically every city, town and village in the United States.

Guaranteed 10000 Miles Against Stone-Bruiise Rim-Cut Blow-Out

MILEAGE

Mileage is the "commodity" one purchases when buying a tire; not mere materials, but the service that certain materials will perform when combined.

Greater mileage is assured in Hydro-Toron tires because processes and principles employed represent the industry's greatest forward steps. The Internal Hydraulic Expansion Process prevents defects from being built into the tire—concealed from sight.

The Toron (no-rot) chemical treatment of fabric gives greater tensile strength, greater holding power between layers, increased affinity for rubber and complete protection against the damaging effects of moisture.

Hydro-Toron tires are oversize—as big as cords, better than cords. Next time you are ready to buy tires, come in and let us show you the tire you have heard so much about.

A Card to the People

To my fellow Citizens of the Tenth Congressional District:

Last February I announced my candidacy for Congress on the Democratic ticket from this district. I got in the field early after mature deliberation and consultation with my friends. I hoped to have no one to get in the field against me. In experience, training, mental equipment, and a whole hearted desire to serve. I feel justified in asking that I be given this nomination. I have no political record to explain as have never been in politics. I am on grounds of good will with the Republicans as well as Democrats. I have had a large experience as a public speaker and can defend myself before any crowd anywhere.

To win this election this fall, we must be removed from mean political passion; we must not be too partisan; we must be able to appeal to the sober judgment of men and women irrespective of party. It is not going to be a Democratic victory only; it is going to be the rising tide of public opinion against a man rather than a party. Our nominee must be able to keep clear of partizanship. If you give me this nomination, I promise you and the people generally a clean fight based on grounds of sober judgment an appeal to hearts and minds and consciences of men and women generally and not couched in terms of mere party clamor. That way lies victory for all, any other way leads to defeat and disappointment.

Yours truly,

K. L. Varney.

Why Suffer?

Cardui "Did Wonders for Me," Declares This Lady.

"I suffered for a long time with womanly weakness," says Mrs. J. R. Simpson, of 57 Spruce St., Asheville, N. C. "I finally got to the place where it was an effort for me to go. I would have bearing-down pains in my side and back—especially severe across my back, and down in my side there was a great deal of soreness. I was nervous and easily upset."

TAKE

The Woman's Tonic

"I heard of Cardui and decided to use it," continues Mrs. Simpson. "I saw shortly it was benefiting me, so I kept it up and it did wonders for me. And since then I have been glad to praise Cardui. It is the best woman's tonic made!" Weak women need a tonic. Thousands and thousands, like Mrs. Simpson, have found Cardui of benefit to them. Try Cardui for your trouble.
